CAL'S SPEECH MARKS CLIMAX ON NAVY ISSUE

Coolidge Wants to Sound
Other Governments on Limitation of Armaments

FAVORS NEW CONFERENCE

Would Point Out That U. S.
Can Revive Competition,
if Step Is Necessary

Washington, President Coolidge's speech at the semi-annual meeting of the executive officers of the government was a significant address not merely because Mr. Coolidge departed from custom and discussed military preparedness in relation to government expenditure, but because it marked the climax of a controversy
which has been smoldering ever since congress convened.

Mr. Coolidge, through General Lord, director of the budget, has been cutting down military and naval expenditures. Although military and naval officers are prohibited from influencing congress on the matter of appropriations, the situation has been so maneuvered that there has arisen in congress a distinct current of un-friendliness to the president's viewpoint and a marked unwillingness to that of the military and naval men.

Mr. Coolidge has been fighting to prevent excessive expenditure all along the line but in no instance has his policy been so flagrantly thwarted as in the matter of an enlarged naval building policy. The president realized that sentiment for a larger navy
can be translated into action the moment other countries are doing. That is the way he has let it be known that he favors another conference on limitation of armament and hopes congress will not appropriate for the three additional cruisers until he has sounded out other governments and made arrangements for a conference.

Mr. Coolidge will enter a conference with the argument that his legislative body is eager to resume the competition in armament and that the power and resources of the United States are adequate to revive competition if that is what the various governments think is inevitable. For once the principle of competitive armament is renewed the president knows that there are other inequalities as between America, naval strength and that of other countries which would have to be corrected.

SPRIT OF ECONOMY
Mr. Coolidge feels that the spirit of America today favors economy and a reduction rather than an increase in armament. The recommendations of the director of the budget on military and naval expenditures are much more in line with what the president desires to do from an economy standpoint than the suggestions of the two departments of national defense. But while there has been little said, the men in the war and navy departments have looked askance at the tendency to reduce, especially since other governments have not kept pace with the principle of reduction.

Mr. Coolidge's discussion of what is adequate preparedness is not acceptable to the military and naval government because there is definite agreement
among world powers for everybody to reduce. The president is compelled therefore to move toward an international conference on armament reduction much more rapidly than had been anticipated. If the president can get congress to postpone appropriations for the extra cruisers this time
he will not be able to secure their postponement in the next session of congress, which begins in December, unless definite steps have been taken for another agreement on the limitation of further naval armament.

BROWNING DENIES CRUELTY TO WIFE

Did Not Strike Peaches at Any Time, Wealthy Real Estate Dealer Says

Courthouse, White Plains, N. Y.— (AP)—Flat denials of his wife's charges of cruelty, with embroilings of his kindness, affection and prodigious generosity toward her, featured the appearance Tuesday on the witness stand of Edward West Browning, the New York realtor, in his separation suit against the former Frances (Peaches) Heenan.
"I certainly did not strike Peaches at any time or at any place," he declared. "I bought her everything she wanted and offered her more than any man's skin once when she was wounded."
At no time, he said, did he ever
"jump about the floor like a monkey
or make strange noises, set off alarm clocks at his wife's bedside, or otherwise make life unbearable for her."
His wife, he implied, was a wife in name only and objected to him and his attentions because she did not want children.

PEKING DISMISSES BRITISH CUSTOMS OFFICIAL SENDS EXTRA MESSAGE ON ROAD FIGHT

HE LOSES HIS CASH AND ILLUSIONS BUT FINDS CANINE PAL

New York (AP)—Patrick Celenette, 29, of Jackson, Mich., who came to New York hunting fame
and fortune, lost his money and illusions in two weeks of metropolitan adventuring, but he found a dog. He rescued a mutt from the vigorous kicks of a former owner and the two Tuesday were somewhere west of the Jersey marshes on the second day of a "trek to Jackson."

After spending his last dollar for a sandwich and bones, Celenette and his pal started west Sunday.
If motorists are prejudiced against the dog, Celenette says he and his pal will reach Jackson in three weeks—if they walk fast.

TURN THUMBS DOWN TO TWO ZONE CHANGES

Ordinance Committee Disapproves Creation of New Business Districts

Disapproval of proposed ordinances
to create local business districts at the southwest corner of S. Cherry and W.
Seymour-sts. and at the northwest corner of W. Wisconsin-ave and N. Alvin-
st. was voted by the ordinance committee of the common council following a public hearing in the city hall Tuesday morning.

The committee is composed of Alderman J. H. Fiedler, chairman, P.
Earle and Jerry Cullahan.
The hearing was attended by approximately 50 citizens, who presented objections against and arguments for the ordinance. A petition signed by 27 property owners in the vicinity of Wisconsin-ave, asked the council to place this property in a local business district.

C. F. Plansch, one of the interested property owners made a short address
in which he said this property, which is at present used as a dumping ground for junk had long been an eyesore to the neighborhood. The owner of the property, J. Greenspoon, had agreed to sign a bond that he would "turn the lot if he was given permission to build a store."

UNFAIR TO NEIGHBORS
Mr. Plansch said efforts had been made for the past six years to have this property cleaned but been unsuccessful.
F. J. Wettengel opposed the ordinance if just one corner of the street intersection was to be placed in such a district. He said that prospective home owners on the other corners
should not be made to suffer by having one corner in a business district.
"I favor Appleton because I am a part of it. It is two growing cities and as such some provision must be made with an eye to future development," said D. P. Steinberg. "I believe that Wisconsin-ave from N. Richmond to N. Durkee-sts should all be placed in a business district."

WANT DEFINITE PLAN
O. P. Fairfield, chairman of the city plan commission explained the stand of the zoning committee in refusing to recommend changes in the ordinance.

WEALTHY GUATEMALA FAMILY IS POISONED

Los Angeles (AP)—Mrs. Marie Arridallago, reputed wealthiest woman of Guatemala, her daughter and two sons are in a serious condition in a hospital here from poison alleged to have been put in their breakfast food Tuesday.

Police who are having the food examined by chemists, expressed the opinion the case might develop into a political murder plot. They point out that the Arridallago family has been a powerful political influence in Guatemala.
Mrs. Arridallago, her daughter,
Carmen, 16, and two sons, Arthur, 15,
and Edward, 12, were rushed to the hospital when they were taken critically ill. It was reported that Mrs. Arridallago is the wealthiest coffee plantation owner in Guatemala and that her husband is a millionaire plantation
and mine owner in his own rights.

railway's crack "Southwest Limited"

was backing up in the yards when three cars left the rails.

NEW STRUGGLE SEEN IN CIVIL WAR IN CHINA

Customs Officer Fired When He Refuses to Collect
Surtaxes

BULLETIN

Hankow (AP)—Negotiations between the Cantonese and British here for a new modus vivendi to take the place of treaties now in effect between China
and Great Britain were broken off Tuesday by Eugene Chen, Cantonese
foreign minister.
The Cantonese foreign minister who had been negotiating with British Charge d'Affaires O'Malley, refused to sign the agreement as long as armed forces of England are concentrating at Shanghai.

Peking (AP)—The Peking, or central government of China, more or less over-shadowed in recent weeks by developments in Cantonese territory,
returned to the spotlight of the Chinese situation Tuesday. Upon the heels of a note to the British government, requesting that armed forces
not be landed in Shanghai, the Peking authorities summarily dismissed Sir Francis Aclen, British inspector general of Chinese maritime customs, for his refusal to collect surtaxes recently decreed by the government.

At the same time the northerners, as well as the Cantonese, concentrated their activities in preparation for what promises to be one of the outstanding military struggles of the present civil war. The campaign is intended by both sides to decide whether the Cantonese, or Nationalists, will retain the territory they won
when the campaign they began less than a year ago gave them nearly half of China, or whether the northerners shall drive back their southern foes and again become sole masters of the nation. The exodus of foreigners from the interior of China continued to full swing in anticipation of the coming clash.

YANGTSE IS OBSTACLE
The rich Yangtze river basin is the first objective of the northerners, and Hankow is the focal point of the campaign. While the Nationalists concentrate their army in Hankow and other points along the Yangtze, Marshal Wu Pei-fu, one of the ablest militarists in China, was mobilizing
his forces in the north.

It is expected that Wu will be joined in the drive on the southerners by General Chang Hsueh-liang, son of Chang So-shan, the predominant figure in the Peking government.

tor.

NEGRO CONFESSES DOUBLE SLAYING

Former Convict Admits He Killed Man and Woman on Lonely Road

Birmingham, Ala.—(AP)—Horace
DeVaughn, Negro who has confessed to slaying Mrs. Ruby Thornton and
A. B. Moore on a lonely road near here on the night of Jan. 19, was in the Jefferson-co jail Tuesday under double guard to insure his safety.
Mr. Moore was supervisor of safety and sanitation for the Southern railway.
According to the Negro, he shot
Mrs. Thornton and her companion when he became angered by the cursing of Moore, DeVaughn claimed that he was walking along the lonely road by which Moore's accompanied by the white man. Moore started to advance and the Negro fired,
he said. Mrs. Thornton sprang from the automobile at the first sign of trouble and ran into the woods.
She was shot in the back 50 yards away, DeVaughn declared.
The Negro took Moore's watch and money, he said. DeVaughn recently completed a 10-year prison sentence
in Tennessee for slaying a Negro woman.

REGISTERED PRIESTS MAY CONDUCT MASSES

Mexico City (AP)—Catholic priests who register with the municipal authorities, thus conforming with the religious laws, are to be permitted to officiate at masses in private homes, says the newspaper El Sol with the announcement that it received its information from the attorney general's department.
It is just six months Tuesday since the Mexican religious laws went into effect and the priests, as a protest against the laws, withdrew from the churches. From time to time, however, they have conducted masses in homes and occasionally some of them were placed under arrest.

Former Ford Sales Head Traces Company's Growth

Washington (AP)—Hearings in the government's $30,000,000 tax recovery
suit against former minority stockholders in the Ford Motor Co., were resumed here Tuesday with the presentation of further evidence reviewing the early days of the Ford organization.
Norval A. Hawkins, former sales manager of the company, testified that although Henry Ford played a small town circuits and rural communities
when he started out in 1904 with his selling campaign, by 1912 there were 7,000 expert trained Ford dealers scattered over the United States. Hawkins was general sales and commercial manager for the Ford company from 1907 to 1919. He gave a graphic description of the Ford sales methods
and its system.
This testimony was offered by the former minority stockholders to demonstrate that the value placed on the $39 shares of Ford stock sold to Henry Ford in 1919, was conservatively appraised by the internal revenue bureau at $9,459 a share as of March 1, 1925, and that the revised valuation of $2,000 now forward by the government does not accord with the condition of prosperity reflected in the operation in 1913. It is upon the basis of the lower valuation that the internal revenue bureau is attempting to collect an additional $30,000,000 tax on collectible extra profits made by the Minority stockholders when they sold out.
Of the total $10,000,000 was assessed against Senator James Couzens of Michigan.
Discussing the character of the men
who made the original Ford Motor Co., Hawkins described Henry Ford as a man who was fearless in anything he undertook and said that Couzens, at that time a partner in the firm, was quite as remarkable as Ford.
"Couzens was a hard headed financial manager, of irreproachable integrity, and in my opinion, responsible for one-half of the success of the Ford company up to 1913," he said.

Sullivan Declares He Swam Catalina Channel

Long Beach, Calif.—(AP)—Henry
F. Sullivan of Lowell, Mass., declared Tuesday he swam from a point near the Isthmus of Santa Catalina Island to Point Vicente on the mainland Monday after 22
hours and 45 minutes in the water.
He said there were nine witnesses
to the 20 mile swim.

Sullivan, a man the English channel, but failed in the recent channel swim sponsored by William Wrigley.
Sullivan, who was being rubbed down in a Turkish bath, said his conveying boat developed motor trouble after he landed and the party was unable to get back here
until 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.
A boat sent up by Long Beach newspaper accompanied the Massachusetts swimmer.
Sullivan's reported time was approximately 22 hours and 45 minutes, that required by George Young of Toronto, Ont., who landed at the same point less than six teen hours after he left the isthmus in quest of the $25,000 prize hung up by Wrigley for the first person to swim the waterway.

EMPLOYERS DENY MARRIED WOMEN WILL LOSE JOBS

"There isn't a word of truth to it so far as I have been able to learn," S. F.
Shattuck of the Kimberly-Clark
Co., Neenah, declared Tuesday morning when he was asked concerning rumors that several Fox river valley employers are about to discharge married women in their employ and fill their places with unmarried women.
Rumors of this nature have been traveling up and down the valley for several days.
"We have never contemplated or even thought of such a movement and I know of no other manufacturers who have," Mr. Shattuck said.
"We made an investigation after the rumors reached us and have not found the slightest ground for them.
This company would never consider such a thing for a moment."
In an effort to trace the rumors to their source it is said some manufacturers got in touch with officers of the state legislature to learn whether legislation of this type was considered.
It was feared that perhaps the rumors
emanated from Madison.
The industrial committee pointed out that other Wisconsin cities had offered the Racine company $50,000.
It also showed that the company
would pay the city approximately $1-300 per year in taxes. A clause in the agreement would state that, should the Racine company leave the city within 10 years after the first seven years the factory site would revert to the city. Thus the city would be assured of taxes for 17 years. The Ci-zens committee then changed the report recommending payment of a sum
not to exceed $50,000.
The industrial committee will report to the common council at the meeting Wednesday night and it is possible that a public meeting to discuss ways and means of raising $50,000 will be called for Friday night, according to Mayor Rule.

Everybody Optimistic Over Farming Except The Farmer

Madison (AP)—General optimism over the present condition of the farmer prevails among all classes of people with the exception of the farmer himself, in the opinion of P. F. McNail, agricultural economist at the University of Wisconsin.
Through a study of statistics, which will be presented before various conferences in connection with Farmers and Homemakers Week, Mr. McNail has arrived at the conclusion that farmers are paying 30 per cent more of their net incomes in the form of marketing costs than they did before the war.
Individual and cooperative "self-
help" suggestions made by many observers as a remedy for present agricultural conditions are often insucero and selfishly given, he declared.
This type of advice, according to Mr. McNail usually comes from "some

COFFEY FACES SWIFT JUSTICE FOR HIS CRIME

Waives Preliminary Examination When He Is Arraigned in Cigar Store

Limestone (AP)—Arraigned before Justice Charles W. Burrows, who held court behind the counter of his cigar store, William N. Coffey, 51, bigamist and confessed slayer of Mrs. Hattie Hales Coffey, his illegal wife, Tuesday waived preliminary hearing on a charge of first degree murder. He was bound over to circuit court for trial, without bail. Judge Sherman E.
Smalley will hear Coffey's plea at 2 o'clock Thursday, when the man is expected to plead guilty and receive his sentence. Life imprisonment is the maximum penalty in Wisconsin.
Coffey's first appearance in a Wisconsin court was brief and informal.
Appearing refreshed from his two days rest, following eight days of investigation when authorities sought to obtain the truth concerning the murder of Mrs. Hattie Hales Coffey, former La Crosse woman, Coffey was taken from his cell in the Grant-co jail and accompanied by Sheriff Hoyt Morse and two deputies, walked unhandcufed two blocks around the square to the cigar store of Justice Burrows.
JUSTICE BEHIND COUNTER
Unable to leave his store on account of business the white-haired justice sat
behind the counter when Coffey appeared. The warrant was read, and the court asked the accused if he wished a preliminary hearing.
Coffey said he did not and Justice
Burrows fixed his trial for 2 o'clock
Thursday afternoon before Judge
Smalley, who advised District Attorney
R. M. O'Leary that he would return from Milwaukee and hear Coffey's plea.

ORCHARD SHAKES HANDS

"Will you shake hands with me?"
the confessed slayer asked Mr. O-Leary. "Why certainly," the prosecutor replied as he gripped the hand of the man. Coffey then told the district attorney that he was ready to plead guilty and wanted to get it over "as soon as possible." The district attorney explained the charge and the law requiring the sentence to life imprisonment in state's prison.
Greeted by curious eyes, Coffey was returned to his cell where he will be held until Thursday when the final chapter in the murder case is expected to be enacted in circuit court. The 51-year-old Madison man, bigamist
and forger, confessed killing his illegal second wife with a baseball bat and hammer, at their camp in Bratton's woods near Platteville, Oct. 8, when they were on their wedding trip.

AWARD CONTRACT TO BUILD ADDITION TO GEENEN STORE

Work on a three story addition, 26 feet long and 62 feet wide, at Geenen's Dry Goods Co. store was started Tuesday morning. The contract for the improvement, which will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000, was awarded to the Hoffman Construction company Monday. The addition is to be completed by May 1, and will add 6,000 square feet of floor space to the present building.
The first two stories will be 26 feet long and 62 feet wide but the third story will extend over the roof of the present second story and will be 62
feet wide and 50 feet long. E. A.
Wettengel is the architect. The addition is to be of brick and steel and will be fireproof.

BALLARD DISCOVERS "LOST" PROPERTY

Madison (AP)—Uniforms and shoes
that were ordered for the home guard
units of the state at a cost of $110,500,
have been found in storage at Camp Randall by the state superintendent of public property.
Clinton B. Ballard, the superintendent,
Tuesday announced that there are hundreds of blue and khaki shirts, trousers and blouses, with a thousand pairs of shoes in storage there.
"Why they have not been discovered before in the eight or ten years since the war, I do not know," Mr.
Ballard said.
He declared that he would recommend to the state board of control
that the uniforms be cleaned and reconditioned for use in state charitable and minor penal institutions.
"The law requires the superintendent of public property to put such goods and merchandise as are discovered to be out of date or beyond the use for which they were purchased to the best possible use or sell them to the highest bidder," he said. "But I do not think it would be wise to sell
these at the low rate they would bring,
when it is possible that the reformers and possibly the reformers themselves, where the state provides clothing, could make good use of them."
In the piles of clothing, which have been stored in a dry place, so that they are still in good condition, are military capes, raincoats, trousers with laced and straight legs, military caps
and all sorts of military coats and shirts, along with the thousand pairs of army shoes.

SENDING EXTRA MESSAGE ON ROAD FIGHT

Zimmerman Wants Legislature to Order Audit of Commission's Books

COST WOULD BE SMALL

Hints at Outside Pressure to Cause Donaghey's Dismissal

Madison (AP)—Governor Zimmerman Tuesday afternoon urged the legislature in a special message, to appoint a committee to investigate the highway department and the controversy that has surrounded the ousting of J. T. Donaghey, state highway engineer, who was displaced by H. J. Kuehling, Milwaukee.

The committee, he said, should be empowered to audit the highway department's books, and it should be one that would select for program the true but appropriate motto "where to the line and let the chips fall where they may."

"Resolutions calling for an investigation are awaiting your action," the governor said in addressing the joint session of the two houses. "I trust that they may be adopted and that a searching investigation will be made into the department, its methods of doing business and its procedure in letting contracts, so that the public may be informed."

COST IS TRIVIAL
"The cost of an audit would be trivial compared to the large amounts which the department has disbursed
from time to time," the chief executive said. "The people have a right to know whether these large sums have been expended wisely or otherwise."

Taking up the intimation that a certain firm had influenced the vote of Mr. Donaghey's dismissal as chief engineer of the department, the governor said the legislature should inquire into the accusation to determine whether the commissioners were influenced by "fear lest the public funds be wasted in purchasing inferior or excessively high-priced road
materials, or whether it was instigated
on behalf of other dealers in road
materials, or whether it was instigated
by a desire to secure profitable contracts in the past, and who now feel that a change in the department may through competition curtail their profits."

M. W. Torkelson, in resigning from the secretaryship of the highway commission, indicated that the resignation of Kuehling, former consulting engineer
for the Wisconsin Vibrolite company, meant that "the vibrolite trust" was
to dominate the state highway policy.
The legislative committee should consider that highway contracts are awarded with the greatest of approbation and that the state highway engineer acts only in an advisory capacity, the executive told the legislature.

In regard to the charge that Kueh-ling has previously been employed by a corporation interested in road work,
the governor said the committee should inquire into the matter. A corporation is allowed to employ an expert in the service of a large insurance company is allowed to hold public office in the insurance department,
and if bankers, connected with large financial institutions are barred from election to office.

INVESTIGATE PICTURE "LOST" PROPERTY

The governor also asked the proposed investigation committee to look into the section of the statutes relating to employment of the highway
chief engineer, and possibly the reformers, where the state provides clothing, could make good use of them.

DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH ADMITTED AS CATHOLIC

London (AP)—The duke of Marlborough, whose marriage to the former Consuelo Vanderbilt was recently nullified, was received into the Catholic church Tuesday. The ceremony was held in the chapel of the archbishop's house, Westminster.
The present duchess of Marlborough,
Countess Abington, Lady Gwendolyn
Spencer Churchill, and Lord Lovat were present. Cardinal Francis Bourne, archbishop of Westminster, granted
the duke and duchess an audience after the ceremony and blessed them.

TELL FARMERS ABOUT
STATE SOIL SURVEY

Agriculturists Invited to Take Advantage of University Service

Madison—(AP)—Wisconsin farmers, gathered here for Farmers and Home-makers week, were told Tuesday how the state surveys soils, the use for such surveys and what results came from them. W. J. Geib, of the university soils department, speaking before the farmers said it is important that every farmer should become familiar with the soil types on his farm.

"When the whole state has been covered by soil surveys it will be possible to give specific aid to every farmer in solving problems that go back to the basis of this basic industry," he said, adding that he hoped all those who are interested in the farm land of their state would avail themselves of the service offered by the university.

KNOW YOUR SOIL.
"Inasmuch as all growing things come from the earth, directly or indirectly, the texture, type, and growing qualities of soils are of paramount importance," he said. For this reason the university, the geological and natural history survey and the United States department of soils are cooperating in surveying the soils.

At this time, the work having been in progress for more than ten years, seventy-five per cent of the state's farm land has been surveyed, Mr. Geib said.

"As the work of the soil survey progresses, the soils extension division puts out demonstration plots on different types to determine the best methods of fertilization to follow. By having these test plots it is possible to determine quite fully the specific needs of each important type of soil. The soils department of the university is accumulating a vast fund of information on soils and their needs which is of great benefit to the farming interests of the state."

BORE INTO EARTH.
"The soil survey is made by soils men who make an examination of the soil in the fields. The soil surveyors go over the land at quarter mile intervals, and take borings with an auger to a depth of three feet or more. In this way they determine the character of the surface soil and also the character of the subsoil. As the work progresses, a map is constructed showing all of the details as indicated above."

"While the field men are engaged in making a soil map they also find out many of the facts as to the crops grown, the methods of cultivation and fertilizer practice followed. All of this material is used in preparing the final report on each county."

STUDY OF ART ADDED
TO 2ND SEMESTER WORK

Art will be taught as a regular subject at Appleton high school during the second semester and a half credit will be given for the work. The first class met Monday afternoon with Miss Dorothy Krippner, art supervisor in the public schools.

Some of the topics to be studied are design, illustration, crafts in so far as there is equipment for them at the school, art appreciation, perspective, still life, watercolor, charcoal, colored chalk drawing, lettering, and interior decoration. Sixteen have enrolled in the class.

During the first semester, Miss Krippner held art classes at the junior high schools and the senior high school but now all of her afternoon time will be concentrated at the latter. Social science teachers at the junior high schools will teach a course in art planned by Miss Krippner and discussed in a text book by the supervisor.

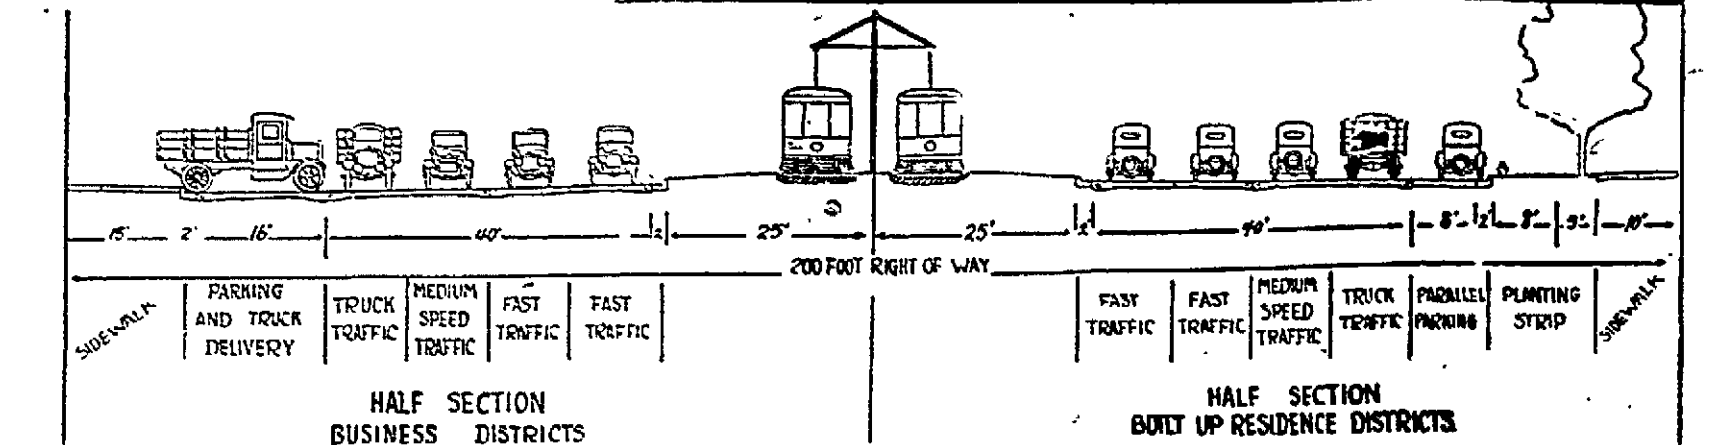

ONLY FOUR COMPANIES
IN STATE MAKE TIN CANS

Madison—(AP)—Although Wisconsin ranks high in the canning industry only four companies in the state make cans.

Surveys prepared by the department of commerce at Washington reveal the fact that 153 establishments in the state are engaged in the canning of fruits and vegetables and in the manufacturing of pickles, jellies, preserves and sauce. The total produce of the nation amounted to $916,067,748. Maryland, with 322 establishments, led the country, the report stated.

Four Wisconsin establishments are listed in the manufacturing of tin cans.

Super-Highways, Which Will Grow With Increase Of Automobiles, Is Answer To Motorists' Big Problem

THIS IS A DIAGRAM OF A NEW TYPE SUPER-HIGHWAY, DESIGNED BY R. E. TOMS OF MONTGOMERY, ALA., AND PROVIDING FOR ITS CONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT IN A 200-FOOT RIGHT-OF-WAY, BY THE ADDITION OF 20-FOOT STRIPS.

BY ROY J. GIBBONS

Chicago Super-highways, which will grow with the increase of automobiles and population, are the promised answers to the harried motorists' prayers.

Engineers are now studying the American Road Builders' Association's location sessions here made that promise. As proof of their faith in the future they have paid a $1,000 prize to Mr. L. E. Toms of Montgomery, Ala., for submitting the best super-highway plan.

A recent contest the city conducted.

Toms' plan calls for construction of a single traffic unit of 20 feet on one side of the center of a contemplated right-of-way, leaving room enough at the center to be for an interurban or street car track.

The right-of-way is to be 200 feet wide, leaving room not only for a double car track, but for four 20-foot units, two on either side of the tracks, and additional widths for parking, trucking and deliveries.

FOR FUTURE DEVELOPMENT.
The super-highway plans, besides, contemplate two stages of development, giving them considerable elasticity. One stage is for closely built up sections. The other is for thinly populated districts.

Probably the first enactment of the super-highway idea will come within the next year in the immediate environs connecting DuPage, Kane and Cook counties, Illinois, in the latter of which Chicago is situated.

Some $25,000,000 is considered necessary to convert present type roadways into the wonderfully accommodating super-highway type as traffic conditions demand without halting passage over the original units.

SPACE FOR PARKING.
In the prize-winning super-highway plan the entire width between the curb and gutter will be paved and the sidewalks will be extended to 15 feet. This will provide a paved width of 172 feet for diagonal parking and for truck delivery.

Highway grade separation will be accomplished at points where the volume of cross traffic would endanger the traffic on the super-highway or materially reduce its carrying load.

Experts differ in regard to the carrying capacity of the two separated roadways which will form the super-highway. But practically all opinion is unanimous in agreement that two separate units for opposite bound traffic are better than a single traffic path equal to the width of the two lanes.

Buys Agency.
O. R. Kohn has purchased the Real Estate agency in Appleton and will return Wednesday from Chicago, where he has been on business for the last few days, to take over the new business. Frank Kirk, owner and manager of the company for the last three years plans to leave Appleton.

Pullman conductors and porters are being awarded stock in the company for acts of heroism and bravery in line of duty.

Rheumatism Recipe.
Ex-Sergeant Paul Case, Room 112 Grace Building, Brockton, Mass., states that while serving with the American Army in France he was given a prescription for Rheumatism and Neuritis that has produced most gratifying results in thousands of cases. He says the prescription cost him nothing, so he asks nothing for it, but will send it free to any one who writes him.

DISCOVER CORN BORER
165 MILES FROM CAPITAL

Madison—(AP)—The European corn borer has been discovered in a corn field only 165 miles, in a straight line, from the Badger state capitol. This fact gives special importance to the address of G. I. Christie, of Purdue university, chairman of the international corn borer committee, who will tell of "The Menace of the Corn Borer" at Madison, on Feb. 3, as a part of Farmers' week program.

Those attending Farmers' and Homemakers' week, Jan. 31 to Feb. 4, may also hear Governor Fred B. Zimmerman and several noted agricultural leaders of the state and nation who have been secured for a part in the program.

RECTOR PLEADS FOR NEW HOME DISTRICT

"Super-residential" Section Spoiled if Council Changes Ordinance, Lions Told

Establishment of a local business district at the corner of W. Seymour and S. Cherry-sts., as proposed in an ordinance published by the common council, will effectively destroy the future "super-residential" district of Appleton, Dr. A. E. Rector, president of Riverview Country club, said in a short address to the Lions club at the Conway hotel Monday noon. Dr. Rector exhibited a plat of the proposed residential district.

"Riverview Country club does not want to sell its property but the time will come when Appleton will demand this land now used for a golf course and when that time comes it will be the finest residential section in the city. If we at this time permit the establishment of businesses in this district, without any restriction as to the type of buildings that may be erected, this section will be worthless as a high grade residential section and the nearby grade section will be spoiled," Dr. Rector said.

He urged Lions to attend a hearing with the ordinance committee of the common council Tuesday morning to protest against changing the city zoning law.

Lions were entertained after the talk by a concert by Appleton high school band under the direction of Carl McKee.

Reeve will act as toastmaster. Carl Jebo will play a group of cello selections.

ENTERTAIN KIWANIANS WITH MOCK TRIAL

Several members of the club were charged with parking their cars in front of a certain house between the hours of 9 o'clock p. m. until 3 o'clock a. m. The "court" endeavored to ascertain what the attraction was at the house. The feature created a lot of amusement.

FLYING EAGLES WIN CONTEST FOR SCOUTS

Keicher Congratulates Menasha Boys on Their Splendid Showing

Menasha—The Flying Eagle patrol of the Menasha Wooden Ware company Boy Scouts won the inter-patrol contest at the company cafeteria Monday night. The Lion patrol won second place and the Tigers third. Prizes were awarded to the members of each patrol on the basis of points won.

The events were run off under the direction of Assistant Scout Master Fred Holzknecht and Senior Patrol Leader Lyle Keicher. The judges were P. O. Keicher, scout executive; John McAndrew, scoutmaster; and John Keicher, a scoutmaster.

Each patrol did exceptionally fine work. In many of the events the work was perfect and time decided the winner.

Mr. Keicher congratulated the boys on the splendid spirit and high standing of the troop and asked for six volunteers to meet him at Hotel Menasha Wednesday noon to demonstrate their scout tests to a group of men. Those who volunteered were Fred Holzknecht, assistant scout master, Lyle Keicher, senior patrol leader, Ray Bechm, Anton Thelen, Raymond Prange and Morgan Keicher.

The application of Sylvester Dehowski for membership in the troop was received and will be accepted soon as he passes his tenderfoot test. During the last two weeks the Wooden Ware troop has received a large number of requests and it has been necessary to limit the number of boys that can be accepted as the troop committee feels that it is impossible to give the members the personal attention they need with too large a troop. Every scout in the Wooden Ware troop, with the exception of one member who has been confined to his home for several months, attended the inter-patrol contest.

"Old Bill" Maxwell Dead After 54 Years In Prison

Waupun—"Old Bill" Maxwell, 86, who had been in the state prison here for 54 years, three months and six days, died in the prison hospital Monday afternoon. Bill's prison residence, so far as the wardens of the institution here know, is the longest in the United States.

Bill had been able to be about and to wheel his chair to the hospital smoking room several times a day for a smoke up till about two weeks ago, said Warden Oscar Lee Monday. "He always had been cheerful, and was to the last. His was a case of real life imprisonment."

WILL BE BURIED AT PRISON

For about two years Bill had been so feeble that he had had to live at the prison hospital. He was very seldom sick, however, and his death, according to the prison doctors, was induced by old age. He has always refused to divulge any information about his relatives, and as it is not known that he has any in this country, he will be buried at the prison cemetery, Warden Lee said.

"Bill," according to the story he stuck to all the long years he was in prison, went to his cell because he killed a man in defense of a woman's honor. He was sentenced to life imprisonment for killing a man in the woods of Oconto co.

DON'T WANT PARDON

For a number of years Bill did carpenter work about the prison, later being made chief engineer at the prison, at one time being regarded in the state as an authority on heating. His ability to live on at the prison, long after others about him had died, he attributed to the fact that he studied scientific books a great deal, and kept busy at something in which he could take interest.

Bill was regarded as a model prisoner. There was much agitation, a few years ago, to have Bill pardoned. The old lady, however, declared he was not interested in a pardon, as he had no friends outside the prison and would rather remain there, where he was well taken care of. On his last birthday, Oct. 25, the prison officials and Bill's pals gave a birthday banquet for him.

Broken Threads

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE
To the home of PROF. and MOLLIE ELWELL, in Camdenville, Ind., one night in October, 1898, is brought a woman who had fainted on a train. That night she bears twin girls and dies without revealing her name.

The story then moves forward 18 years. The twins, now growing into beautiful young women, have been adopted and named MARGARET and ELIZABETH. They are called RUSTY and BETTY. JIM ELWELL, the son, enlists in the World War. He then discovers that one of the twin loves him.

He is shell-shocked at the Battle of Sedan and at first is reported dead. Finally, however, he is identified in a New York hospital and his mother and father see him and find he has completely lost his memory and speech. He is like a living dead man.

Specialists despair of his recovery. They believe an operation might be fatal. His parents decide to take him home. The day before they are to leave NURSIE NELLIE DOWNING and his mother leave him for a few minutes and he disappears.

NOW BEGIN THE STORY:
CHAPTER XXXI

"He's gone!" burst from Mollie Elwell in tones of dismay. She asked Nellie Downing, "Do you suppose he followed us?" He wouldn't be likely, do you think, to wander off the other way into the woods?"

The nurse stood speechless, stricken with sudden fear.

"Oh dear!" Mollie cried a little wildly, her glance darting here and there, "it's getting to be just one thing after another. Where's he? Where can he have gone to?"

She wrings her hands in helplessness, paced back and forth wildly, "what had we better do? Go back and get some help? Turn in an alarm?"

Contrition had laid hold of Nellie Downing. It was her fault entirely, she was telling herself miserably. She ought not to have left Jim alone. Why had she done it? It was she, even, who had suggested it. She, a nurse, who should have known better.

"It's my fault," she said to Mollie Elwell. "It's all my fault. We'll go right to the superintendent. He'll know what to do. Jim must have followed the path out of the park. He's familiar with that and he never tries anything he hasn't tried before. We probably will find him up near the administration building."

She spoke with an assurance, an optimism she was far from feeling. Fear held her in its grip. "Where had Jim Elwell gone?"

"They didn't find him at the administration building but they found the superintendent."

He spoke briefly when he had heard the story. "We'll start a search right away."

The supervisors of the different buildings were notified by telephone that a psychopathic patient was missing. Within ten minutes 50 searches, including orderlies, infernoses, nurses who weren't needed for something else and others about the institution were called into action. It was half past four when the hunt started.

The five o'clock trolley brought Prof. and Mike Hennegan. The hunt still was on. At five-thirty two bloodhounds, kept for just such emergencies, were taken to the rustic seat where Jim had been seen last and given his scent. They took up the trail on a tight lead. It led straight back to the administration building and stopped at the place where the trackless trolley stopped.

The two dogs settled back on their haunches, pointed their noses up in the air and gave voice to their reasonings. Then they stretched out with their bellies on the ground and licked their chops. This was dog code, their keeper stated, which signified that the trail now led up in the air.

"But he couldn't have boarded one of the trolley buses," uttered the superintendent, though none too positively. "The driver would have seen at once that something was wrong when he couldn't collect fare. He would have brought him back and notified us."

Mike Hennegan broke in at this point with something to show that the superintendent easily might be wrong in his deductions and the bloodhounds perfectly right in theirs. "The driver wouldn't have been likely to notice a thing out of the way with the fare-paying business!" he announced positively. "Jim could pay his fare as well as anybody when he had the fare to pay. Did he have any money on him, Prof?"

"He must have had nearly a dollar," Prof. Elwell answered. "And," he added, "it's ten to one that's just what happened. He boarded the trolley bus and got off at the street car connection. Probably the State Island police already have picked him up."

He turned to Mollie and Nellie Downing, whose faces had lighted, as he finished speaking, with a new hope.

"You say it was about five minutes to four when you left him in the park?" Prof. asked.

"About ten minutes or, I think," said Nellie Downing.

"Well, if he followed you right up he could have been at this spot at four o'clock, the time the bus left here."

Prof. Elwell's glance shifted back to the superintendent.

"Who's the driver of that bus, Mr. Dennison?" he inquired. "And when will he be back?"

"George Bardick is the driver," the hospital head told him. He looked at his watch, adding, "He's due here about six o'clock. It's five-thirty now."

They waited for the bus, deciding to stay where they were until that lead had been run down.

The bus driver arrived promptly on schedule.

"Why, yes, that young feller rode with me," he told the anxious questioners when he had brought his car to a stop in front of the administration building. "I don't know that anything was wrong with him in particular. He got off all right at the transfer station and I saw him get on the ferry car."

Prof. repeated blankly, "You saw him get on a ferry car?"

TOONEN WILL MAIL INCOME TAX BLANKS EARLY IN FEBRUARY

Returns Must Be Returned to Assessor's Office by March 15

Income return blanks will be mailed from the office of Leo J. Toonen, assessor of incomes, about the first week in February, he has announced. Letters are now being prepared for distribution to persons in Outagamie and Waupesa counties with taxable incomes, and will be ready for mailing shortly after Feb. 1, it is expected.

The blank reports are for the 1926 income, tax on which is paid next year. The reports must be returned to the assessor's office by March 15, even though the person to whom a blank was addressed has no taxable income. If such is the case, notice to this effect should be made. Notification also should be made if a report of the income has been filed in another district. This is district 21, and is composed of Outagamie and Waupesa counties.

Four separate reports will be mailed. That on white paper is for individuals, the pink report is for firms and partnerships, the blue one is for farmers and dairymen, and the yellow is for guardians, trustees, executors, administrators, agents, receivers and other persons or corporations acting in a fiduciary capacity.

The statutes provide for the following general instructions:

"If you moved into or out of the state during the year a part of your income which follows your residence is taxable and such part depends on the number of days of the year during which you were a Wisconsin resident."

"If you are in doubt whether property, money or its equivalent received by you should be reported as income full disclosure of the facts should be made to the assessor of incomes so as to avoid possible penalties. If receipts of prior years come within this doubtful class, present the matter at once for the assessor's consideration and ruling."

"If for any reason an assessment fixed by the assessor is deemed unjust or not warranted, you are privileged to present your case to the Income Tax Board of Review. This board meets annually on the last Monday of July, and continues in session until all matters are disposed of."

"In all cases where an assessment is questioned, a written complaint should be filed with the assessor of incomes who will arrange for a hearing before the board. In presenting cases witnesses and documentary evidence can be used. All evidence and testimony must be submitted under oath, but the proceeding is made very informal. No person shall be allowed in any action to contest the validity of any assessment unless appeal has been taken to the Board of Review and Wisconsin Tax commission."

Taxpayers are warned not to confuse federal exemptions of $1,500 and $3,500 with the state exemptions of $800 and $1,500, according to Mr. Toonen.

A head of a family is one who is actually supporting and maintaining in one household one or more persons and who has the right to exercise family control and who provides for such dependents on moral and legal grounds, Mr. Toonen pointed out.

"An exemption claimed as a head of a family will not be allowed unless schedule L is filled in," he said.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

Take Salts To Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.

RICCARDO MARTIN, OPERATIC TENOR, WILL APPEAR HERE

Noted Singer Will Come to Appleton During Spring Music Festival

Riccardo Martin, famous operatic tenor in America and Europe, will sing at the Chicago Operatic festival in the Appleton Spring Music festival May 17 at Lawrence Memorial chapel. Mr. Martin has known success at Covent Garden, in London, England, with the Metropolitan Opera Co. of New York City and the Chicago Opera association.

"He is an American—the greatest living tenor except Caruso," the New York Evening Post said of Martin before the death of the great Italian. Many critics have corroborated this statement by saying that Martin is America's greatest tenor.

He will appear in Appleton with Marjorie Maxwell, prima donna soprano of the Chicago Civic Opera Co., and Virgilio Lazzari, also of the Chicago association and probably the greatest bass singer in American opera. They will be assisted by Schola Cantorum of Lawrence chapel, directed by Dean Carl J. Waterman.

Solo, duet and trio numbers will be sung by the Chicago group and the great choruses of the opera will be given by Schola Cantorum.

Operatic night will be the second evening of the festival. Two concerts will be given by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra the first day. In the afternoon the orchestra will be assisted by a chorus of 50 children's voices which will sing a children's cantata, "The Ugly Duckling." The chorus is conducted by Dr. Earl L. Baker, supervisor of music in the public schools. Schola Cantorum will assist the orchestra in the evening. The first half of the program will be played by the orchestra and the last half will consist of Coleridge Taylor's oratorio, "Hiawatha's Festival" is sponsored by a committee of Appleton men, headed by Stephen C. Rosebush. Mr. Waterman is in charge of the music and Carl McKee is business manager.

COMING HERE

RICCARDO MARTIN, NOTED TENOR, WILL BE ONE OF THE ATTRACTIONS AT THE MUSIC FESTIVAL TO BE HELD HERE IN THE SPRING.

Train. Baked by machine gun fire and halted now and again by exploding mines, the boys in khaki stormed the enemy trenches, cleaned out machine gun nests, and "mopped up" the field of action.

American legionnaires, personating their quondam foes the Germans, enacted the losing side and provided a stubborn and realistic defense.

STOLE THE BABY TO KIDNAP THE PEARLS

The gentlemanly burglar was slightly intoxicated, having jimmied open the theatrical producer's safe of private booty, and he thought the baby had swallowed the string of pearls that had suddenly been thrown upon a table in front of his eyes. So he stole the baby in order to recover the pearls at his leisure.

That forms one of the many high spots of fun in the farce comedy "Oh, What a Night!" at the New Bijou Wednesday and Thursday. There is always action—as much as in a melodrama; but there is always a fringe of humor around the action at the least; at the most it becomes a continuous roar of unlaughed mirth. The cast has been chosen with the utmost care to make each player fit snugly into the skin of the character he is portraying. Edna Murphy was never more blond, petite, charming, more the mistress of farce-comedy acting than she is in "Oh, What a Night!" Raymond McKee again demonstrates his ability to extract the last bit of comedy out of every situation. New Sparks is a complete joy to the intoxicated burglar who pursues the pearls and then steals the baby to recover the pearls. Charles K. French contributes an excellent bit of character acting, as do Hillard Kerr and Frank Alexander. Master Jackie Coombs, as the baby, won every heart through his naturalness and his childish grace.

Our heartfelt advice to all the sundry is see "Oh, What a Night!" tonight, before anything can happen to prevent your seeing it.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER IS SOUGHT BY POLICE

Police have been asked to watch for Carl Wiedenmann, a freshly dressed, middle aged man wanted in San Francisco for embezzlement. He is 40 years old, five feet eight inches tall and weighs about 145 pounds. He has grey blue eyes, a round face, long nose, black hair and a black mustache. Although a native of Germany, he speaks German, French, English, Spanish and Chinese, but a German accent is noticeable.

He is a neat dresser and brags about his appearance. One of his most characteristic habits is tearing off his finger nails and continually scratching his head, a practice which has resulted in producing many scabs on his head and caused him to lose his hair in several places.

Formerly with the German embassy in China, he later acted as director for the late Rudolph Valentino for a time. Stock markets, in fact almost all subjects, are familiar to him. He is a habitual dice player, is quick and hasty, and has a German police dog with him.

He is charged with embezzling $10,000 from Florence E. Morgan of the General Credit and Loan association, where he was employed as a clerk and manager. A $50 reward is offered for information leading to his apprehension, according to D. J. O'Brien, chief of police, San Francisco.

GOCHNAUER PRESIDES AT STATE CONVENTION

C. O. Gochnauer of the Gochnauer Concrete Products company, president of the Wisconsin Concrete Products association, will leave Wednesday for Milwaukee where he will preside at the annual convention of the association Thursday and Friday. B. D. Gochnauer of this city also will attend the sessions. Pres. Gochnauer will respond to the address of welcome at the opening session.

While the manufacture and use of concrete masonry units has been known for many years, the chief reason for these products not having a better position in the building industry is that their merits have not been properly placed before the building public, is the opinion of Mr. Gochnauer. He is a staunch advocate of newspaper advertising and will discuss the results such campaigns should produce.

More than 200 members are expected to attend the meeting. Stucco demonstration will feature the annual banquet Thursday evening.

Cleans Inside and Pores Free from Any Taint

All the trick laxatives in the world can't teach people who understand properties of cascara.

A hundred different drugs will purge the bowels, but a little natural cascara purifies the system clear through. Cleanses even the pores of your skin. Tender's perspiration as inoffensive as so much dew.

Your grandparents took "sals" and slowly washed away the mucous membrane with the waste. Mineral oils are better, but they leave the coating that your blood must then carry off through the pores. But when you cascade the system, you get rid of all the poisons by normal muscular action of the bowels.

Don't get in the habit of taking medicine for constipation—or even for auto-intoxication. If you have the habit, stop it. A candy cascara is a delightful form in which to take cascara; children love them and the taste tempts most grown-ups to take "more." And what a comfort to know you are in that clean, wholesome condition that does away with any need of deodorants, even in warmest weather! Try a cascara tonight! All druggists, 10 & 25c.

Picture Of McKinley Is Given School

An oil painting of President McKinley was presented by Appleton chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to McKinley Junior high school Monday afternoon. The perfect double-boiler

Then Aluminex double-boiler is just about the prettiest thing you ever saw. You must have one of them in your kitchen.

You can cook your favorite cereals and puddings in it without fear of sticking or scorching, for the inside surface is just as smooth and highly polished as the outside. And that makes it easy to clean. Plain soap and water and an ordinary dish cloth are all you need. That saves the surface—and saves your hands, too.

The new double cover has the knob inset, and that gives you a handy level surface on top for heating or warming other dishes. The knob is made of Thermoplex—a material that won't burn, crack, come loose or discolor even at intense oven heat.

ALUMINEX

Cook your cereal at night in a heat-regulated oven and have thoroughly cooked cereal in the morning. There is plenty of room for the water; it can't boil dry.

RURAL YOUTHS' PROBLEMS STUDIED AT CONFERENCE

Madison—(AP)—Problems of rural youth in Wisconsin will be discussed at group meetings which will be held in connection with Farmers and Home makers Week.

Some of the problems of Wisconsin rural youth will be considered in those daily programs of Farm Folks' Week. This division of the state farm folks' meet is being introduced by W. McNeel, assistant state boys' and girls' club leader. McNeel is known by, and knows, more Wisconsin boys and girls than probably any other man in the state.

Activities that interest girls will be covered by Miss Elizabeth Satter, of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture, and in charge of Girls' Club work in the state. How a community can be organized to encourage worthwhile interests in the boys and girls living in it will be told by J. P. Wiseman, teacher of agriculture in the Janesville high school. H. G. Seyforth, county agent for Pierce county, is on the program for Wednesday, February 2, to tell how he organized his county in projecting the work of boys and girls on the farm, by helping them to realize on their interests.

A meeting of Deborah Rebekah lodge will be held at 7:45 Wednesday night in Odd Fellow hall. Routine business will be discussed.

Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold a regular meeting at 8 o'clock Wednesday night in Eagle hall. Routine business is on the calendar.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy J. Myse and daughter Audrey left Tuesday for California where they will spend about two months. The trip will be made by automobile.

E. M. Nelson and Matthew Guerts attended a meeting of the National Guardian Life Insurance agency at the Retlaw hotel at Fond du Lac Tuesday.

APPLETON, KAUKAUNA FIVES BATTLE AT ARMORY TONIGHT

Injuries Bother Both Squads As Old Rivals Clash In Court Fight

Strutz Bothered by Broken Nose; Miller, Kaw Center, Also Injured

APPLETON	KAUKAUNA
Lutz, Murphy	Kronforst
Reetz, Strutz	F. Sager
Laird, Reetz	McPadden
Kunitz, Moore	Macorrie
Steinberg, Pfefferle	Bisels

With both teams handicapped by injuries to regulars, Appleton and Kaukauna high schools will clash on the cage court for the first time in years on Tuesday evening in the Armory. Appleton will enter the fray with the possibility that Strutz, regular forward, will be out with a broken nose incurred in the Fords' battle last week, and Moore, with an ankle still in bad condition. Kaukauna will be hit by the possible loss of Bill Miller, captain-elect of the 1927 grid squad, who had been working well at guard and center on the courts.

With the injury so recent Coach Shields probably will take little chance with Strutz in a non-conference game, doped as a victory, but will give him for the league battles. Reetz and Lutz probably will open at forwards, with Laird at center, and Kunitz and Steinberg at guards. Moore's ankle may permit him to enter the game for a time if Appleton runs up a lead.

Reports from the past few years, jumping center and then moving to his usual job with Kronforst in spite of a knee injury from football, playing forward at the jump and then playing the midfloor job the rest of the game. Sager, recently declared eligible, plays opposite McPadden. Macorrie, veteran forward, center and guard of the team for the last three years, and the best all-around man on the squad, plays a guard and, with Bisels, forms a defense hard to penetrate. Kaukauna's defense seems to be its strongest point. Macorrie will be bear watching by the Orange the entire game as he is a neat shot.

If the Orange can take a lead Coach Shields expects to make a few substitutions, giving his extra men a chance as well as working to find the best combination, a thing which still seems to be lacking with the squad.

MARION DEFEATS CLINTONVILLE FIVE

Visitors Take 25 to 20 Victory—Locals Make Rally in Last Few Minutes

Clintonville — The Clintonville City team lost to the Marion City team, by a 25 to 20 score Friday night. The visitors had the game well in hand at all times, and the local team was outplayed except during the last part of the fourth quarter when it ran up 12 points to 4 for its opponents.

The visitors started out with a rush and led 9 to 4 at the quarter. Clintonville was unable to score in the second quarter, while Marion ran the score to 15 to 4. Marion forced ahead to a 21 to 8 lead in the third quarter.

Defensive work was good on both sides but the Marion offensive was superior. Due to clever teamwork and fine handling of the ball, Wolk and Olerjensen were the stars for Marion, and each scored four points. Ransom and Helms worked well at guards.

Schwank made 11 points for Clintonville and Chet Dettler and "Cricket" Schauder furnished the rest.

The lineup: Clintonville — Carter, Schauder, Bentzler, Dohman, Druly, forwards; and Schwanke, center; Jesse and Schwab, guards.

Marion — Wolk, Olerjensen and Miller, forwards; Island, center; Helms, Ransom and Welch, guards.

RIPON ATHLETES TELL "WHY I'M IN SPORTS"

Ripon — Athletes compete in sports for a number of different reasons, according to the answers given by some of the most prominent athletes at Ripon college in response to the question, "Why do you participate in athletics?"

Arthur Hauser, 4-Letter Man in Foot ball and Basketball, Monday, I participate in athletics because of the personal pleasure I receive from them and because I believe it my duty to do whatever I can for my alma mater.

Melvin Eric, Neilville — Football and basketball Letter Man — Athletics are like life itself. It's the courage to meet defeat and not become beaten that makes a man an athlete. It's the loyalty to value his alma mater above all personal jealousies, rivalries that makes a man a college athlete.

Duncan Reid, Endeavor, Basketball star — The enjoyment one gets out of the game is the incentive. But truly there are lessons to learn in the sport. The fellows you meet, the benefits derived, physically and mentally, are the rewards of competitive athletics.

Arthur Lohr, Wausau, Veteran Basketball Center — It's fun playing—that is why I play. It's fun for athletes. We all like to play. It's fun. Life is too short not to enjoy oneself. I enjoy having fun, and that is why I participate in athletics.

Joe Meyer, Minneapolis, Captain-elect, Track Star, Holder of Midwest Century and Furlong Records — I participate in sports for two reasons, first because I like the competitive spirit, the matching of ability that all sports bring out. Then the associations formed and the respect commanded are well worth looking for.

James Murray, Oconto Falls, Last Year Captain in Track — I like sports in athletics because I like all sports, believing them to be a great bulwark, physically and mentally.

TUESDAY GAMES

Kimberly-Clark vs Kaukauna "X".

SATURDAY GAMES
Citizens Bank vs Co. D.
Coated Paper vs Riverside Paper.

Kimberly-Clark Co. engers tightened their hold on first place in the Y. M. C. A. Industrial basketball league Saturday night by a second-half rally which downed the cellar Co. D squad under an avalanche of baskets, 27-16.

In the other game of the evening the Citizens Bank squad also came back in the second half to beat the Kaukauna "X" squad and take a lone hold on fourth place in the loop.

In the opening game the Co. D squad went into the battle determined to trip the loop leaders and succeeded so well by pretty teamwork and close guarding that the score stood 17-4 in its favor at the half. The Citizens Bank completely outplayed the K-C crew in this period and showed flashes of first-place ball. However, in the final periods the cellar crew was unable to stand the pace and broke under a barrage of baskets, which the K-Cs took from all sectors of the court. The winners seemed suddenly to regain the shooting eye which has beaten every loop squad but one this year.

Van Ryzin led the winners with five baskets, all in the final period and Clark added three, beside playing a good defensive game. The Citizens Bank and Green led the Co. D offense and W. Schultz played a good defensive game. Muenster had three baskets and Green and Bohne each two.

In the second game Kaukauna led 12-10 at the end of a hard-fought half and fought on to win the third quarter but in the final period the Bankers broke loose to score several ringers while holding the Kawmen down. They guarded so well that the K-C forward failed to get a shot the entire period. W. Yeckel had a field day for the winners scoring seven baskets, several of which were hard shots from midfloor, and three free tries for 17 of 29 points. Vandersteen and Miller led the losers with four and three ringers each.

Leading teams play second division squads this week, with the Kimberly-Clark-Kaw game Tuesday night probably the feature tilt. Formerly a Fox River-Galpin Hardware tilt would mean a good game as the Galpin men beat the Baztemen in the final stretch last year for the flag and were favorites with the Foxmen this year. However, two regulars, Schwager and Zussman, left the city and three college men, Bloomer, Welk and Remmel, deserted the squad, leaving Bud Furminger and Fraser of the original team. An attempt to strengthen the team was stopped by loop managers, who feared the Galpins would become too strong for the rest of the teams. As a result the squad which faces Fox River will be a makeshift crew built around Fraser and Furminger and should be an easy victim.

WALSH TAKES $100 IN TEXAS TOURNEY

Frank Walsh, Butte des Morts country club pro golfer, carried off $100 by tying for eleventh place in the Texas Open Golf championship last week, according to reports received here. The meet was a $6,000 tourney rather than $2,500 as stated in the Post-Crescent.

Believing them to be a great bulwark, physically and mentally.

OLD BELOIT STAR PLAYS HERE WITH BASING CAGE FIVE

Vandraschek Faces Squad Which Beat N. Y. Men; Schulte Also Here

Conquerors of the New York National star team of the national pro cage loop, by the large score of 49-19, is the latest important feat of the Swendson Fords of Milwaukee, Wisconsin only unbeaten pro team. In spite of more than ten hard games, the Fords still are unbeaten and probably still will be when they arrive in Appleton on Feb. 10 for their battle with the Basing Sports, local pro cage stars.

McAuliffe, former Orange coach, again featured the Fords win over the Nationals, but another man new to the Milwaukee lineup shared the limelight. While he also is new to local fans as far as sight is concerned, his name was common on the lips of Appleton diamond lovers the past summer. He is Fred Schulte, Belting Beauty of Belvidere, who patrolled an outer garden for Otto Borchert's Brewers this summer and played a big part in keeping the Cream City crew in the race for the loop pendant. In spite of a late-season slump, he was high among the loop's best sluggers.

Schulte was sold to the St. Louis Browns for a large sum and will work in the Missouri city next season. He is said to be as good with a basketball as with a bat and his work alone and an ordinary Belvidere team feared this winter. Now signed with a star team, he shows his great ability with the leather, equalling McAuliffe, who is one of the classiest cagers in the west.

Appleton fans, both cage and diamond, are expected to turn out to see him. In fact, if he is as good a cager as he is a baseball player, the cage fans should get an eyeful of the best, while the diamond boys will be around just to get a peak at the lad who brought Herr Otto a neat pile from a big league ball club.

VANDRASCHKE HERE

An announcement of Manager Basing also is made with glad by local cage enthusiasts. It is that "Mooney" Vandraschek, from whom Beloit college had no better long shot artist, will leave the wilds of La Crosse long enough to play with the Sports against the Fords and his old associate, McAuliffe. Mooney will arrive a few days early to get in some practice with the local team.

Vandraschek was the "leading scorer of the Midwest conference for two years while his team was 'Midwest' champ and also was chosen on every all-state and all-Midwest team. His shooting alone beat Lawrence out of two games, one of which local fans will remember. Again his last year at Beloit, he came to Appleton as the only star of a weak team and his shots from more than beyond the midfloor at Armory G kept the Gold in the running with a far superior all-around Duke team until the final whistle. Any fan who has seen Mooney take his stance for a farther-than-middle shot and then let drive will never forget the thrill, especially in a close game. When he starts to shoot fans hold their breaths and fail to release them until the ball finishes its journey, either sinking through the hoop or sailing so close that the audience lets out and audible sign of relief for the rival team.

Two experienced referees of the Wisconsin State cage loop will handle the big game so that the battle will be a game of basketball only. Werner Witte of Roosevelt school, and Vernon Wright, Appleton high school, will alternate at the big. With the other man umpiring. Both are considered among the best in this part of the state.

RAJAH MAY RETURN TO CARDINAL CREW

Refusal to Buy Hornsby's Stock May Force Him to Stay With Team

St. Louis — Sam Brandon's refusal to buy Rogers Hornsby's 1,167 shares of stock in the St. Louis Cardinals at $10 a share may force the cardinal of the trade which sent Hornsby to New York as captain of the Giants for next year and place him again on the Cardinals' team and board of directors. It was announced here Monday.

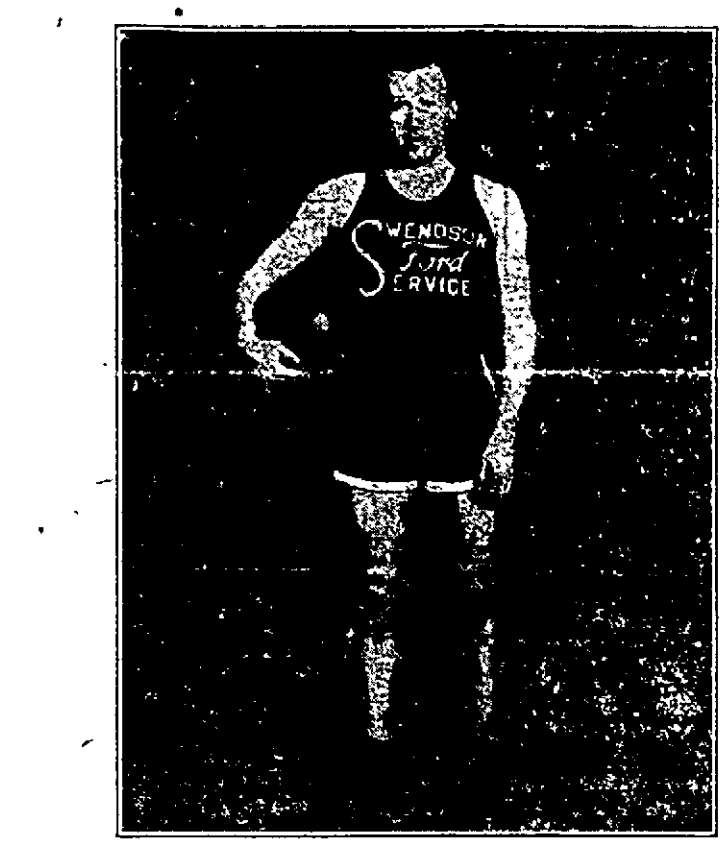

William F. Fahey, attorney for Hornsby, made a statement Monday morning and that Hornsby's stock entitles him to a place on the board of directors of the St. Louis National Baseball company, and that if the stock were sufficient Hornsby would be reelected to the board at the meeting of the stockholders Tuesday.

"Yes, Hornsby's stock entitles him to a place on the board," Brandon admitted when questioned on the situation. "It is his right and I have no intention to deprive him of that right. It is a most unusual condition and I do not know how it will work out. The situation may be such that the trade with New York will have to be called off and we may have to play Hornsby at second base."

INVINCIBLES LEAD KIMBERLY NETTERS

Kimberly — Clyde's Invincibles kept their perfect record Monday evening in the Kimberly Monday evening Volleyball loop by taking three games from Rayfield's Wonders. The Clubhouse Boosters took three straight from Ritten's Bouncers. Clyde's Invincibles hold first place having won all nine games played; the Clubhouse Boosters hold record having won six and lost three; Ritten's Bouncers with two wins and seven defeats hold third and Rayfield's Wonders rest at the bottom with one win and eight defeats.

A silver medal signifying the campus championship will be awarded to the Lawrence student who wins the intermural rifle match which will be held at Armory G gallery at a convenient time this week. The match is open to the public. The ten highest scores will represent Lawrence in several intercollegiate meets to be held soon.

Scores of last week indicate that there will be keen competition in the shoot. Kittleson, with 50, was high among students. The faculty members are holding their own with the rest of the club. Professor McCongha scored 49.

Philadelphia — K. O. Phil Kaplan, N. Y. defeated Joe Simonich, Dutte, Mont. (10).

KIMBERLY ALL-STARS WHIR LOCKS QUINTET

Kimberly — The All-Stars of Kimberly won a hard fought battle from the Combined Locks squad by a 26-22 score Sunday at the Combined Locks Auditorium. The Locksmen led 14-10 at the close of the first half but a rally by the All Stars in the third quarter, which netted them three baskets while holding the Locksmen scoreless, gave them a two point lead. The last quarter was especially exciting as the Kimberly squad caged five baskets.

Combined Locks team got four during the latter part of the period. Vander Zanden starred for Kimberly, with six baskets. Huntington got four and Williams, Vander Velden and Ouden-hoven broke into the count column with a basket apiece. Wildenberg with seven baskets and Stein with two were the highest scorers for Combined Locks.

KIMBERLY CAGE FIVE WANTS MORE BATTLES

Kimberly — Letty's Aces, an undefeated cage squad of Kimberly, desire more games to complete their schedule for the season. The squad will play any team averaging one hundred and twenty points. Team's desiring games should write to Manager Roger La Berge, Kimberly.

The Aces took their eleventh straight victory from the Menasha Island Aces by a 17-13 count Friday evening at Menasha. Gossens was high scorer for Kimberly with seven baskets and a free throw.

Thursday evening the Aces had an easy time defeating the Interlake Sons of Appleton, 22-11 at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

MENASHA FAVORED FOR BIRTH IN VALLEY LOOP

Menasha — Menasha expects to obtain a berth in the Fox River Valley Baseball league as the result of favorable reception of this city's application by the loop moguls at a recent meeting. Plans for the organization of a strong team, should a franchise be granted the local club, are on foot. Neenah will also be represented in the league again next summer. Other cities holding franchises include Appleton, Oshkosh, Kimberly and Green Bay.

Terry, manager of the University Radio Department. The authorities received special permission to adopt a wave length of 560 meters or 590 kilocycles on Tuesday nights to evade likely interference on the regular wave length adopted by WIAA.

The two contest scheduled for Tuesday are the Badger-Notre Dame game on February 23d, and the Iowa-Wisconsin tilt the 22nd of February. All other Madison games will be on the air on the ordinary wave length, 531 meters.

Belvidere, Ill. — (AP) — Fred Schulte, star outfielder with Milwaukee, purchased by the St. Louis Browns for a reported sum of $100,000, signed with the Browns Monday. It had been reported that he would refuse to sign unless he received part of his purchase price.

Hard-pressed for escape yesterday morning, I ducked down what I thought was a coal-hole of our home. Instead of leading to the coal-bin, it led to a cellar room of which I had not been aware before—a separate compartment completely walled off from the rest of the cellar and accessible only through the hole by which I had entered.

FREMONT CHURCH
ELECTS OFFICERS
AT ANNUAL MEET

Officials for 1927 Are Re-elected by Reformed Hope Congregation

Special to Post-Crescent
Freemont—The annual congregational meeting of the Wolf River Reformed Hope church was held at the church after services at 1:30 Sunday afternoon. The following officers were re-elected for 1927: Treasurer, Franklin Neushaffer; elders, Franklin Neushaffer and Thomas Neubauer; deacons, J. P. Bachmann, John Noffberger, Rev. Mr. Noll of the Plymouth Mission house conducted the services.

The warm weather and the thaw of last week, coupled with the colder weather Monday, caused roads and sidewalks to become extremely slippery and dangerous. The main sidewalks of the village, especially those bordering the river, are entirely covered with ice.

Electric current on the Wisconsin Traction, Light Heat and Power Co. power line was off several hours Monday forenoon. All machinery in the Wolf River Dutton Co. factory and the feed grinding department of the Allen Lumber Co. mill was stopped.

Local radio fans are still troubled with unusual electrical noises which practically spoils radio reception. The trouble is especially prevalent in the vicinity of the bridge across the Wolf River and the power line transformers. It is believed by many that the radio reception interference is caused by leakage of electricity at the transformers or towers, because of the noted trouble near them. Electrical engineers from the company are investigating but have not yet found any serious defects in their apparatus.

Boys Lose Clubhouse In Blaze At New London

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—On Sunday evening, shortly after the supper hour New London's Athletic clubhouse burned to the ground. There were no casualties, but the fire was heartbreakingly sudden. The Athletic clubhouse was one of the architectural delights of the Fourth ward, the pride of its promoters, the meeting place of souls which met and communed together in peace and quietude with a convenient padlock on the door and no bothersome women-folk about.

The little place was the treasured property of a group of high school boys who during the past year have been going through the stages traveled by all lads who enjoy the creation of a little place of their very own with friends, books and a fire for company.

It stood in the rear of the residence of Mrs. William Koepke, Clyde Koepke, Wilfred Weidenbach, Elmer Gottschalk and Billy Davison were its charter members though there were frequent outstanding invitations to all those who were willing to contribute such things as lumber, building paper, cement or a bit of furnishings. The snug little place was a marvel of boy ingenuity. Especially well furnished, it afforded many pleasant hours to the boys. Its fireplace was a work of art, and its basement while diminutive was splendid for the storing of wood and other things necessary to the comforts of the club members.

Many interesting parties entertained the boys there during the holiday season. Mothers made rabbit pies, girls palis presented cushions and the little house was gay with holly, candles and a Christmas tree.

Something went wrong on Sunday evening, however, though no one is quite sure what really happened. At all events when discovered the little place was a burst of flames and there was little to do but to summon the fire department in order that nearby residences might not be endangered.

Among the prized possessions which disappeared in the flames were a collection of books and two rifles. An antique matchette, too went the way of the rugs and cushions.

Inquiries among local insurance men disclose that no insurance was carried. It is not yet known whether another building will be erected upon the site of the Athletic club.

GERMANY AND ALLIES AGREE ON DISARMING

Differences Over Military Control of Germany Are Settled by Council

Paris—(AP)—Full agreement on the disarmament questions which have been the subject of protracted negotiations between the allies and Germany was reached Tuesday.

The allied council of ambassadors is working out a few remaining details but all pending differences over the military control of Germany have been settled, and there are no problems to be turned over to the league of nations.

CONTROL CEASES

The inter-allied military control commission now ceases to function, the league taking over the work of seeing that Germany complies with the disarmament provisions of the Versailles treaty.

In broad lines the agreement calls for the destruction of the fortifications at Kuerstlin and Glogau in Russia, and the fortifications in the vicinity of Koenigsberg.

The German government solemnly affirms that no other fortifications exist, except those expressly recognized by the allies, and engages not to construct others.

PEKING DISMISSES BRITISH OFFICIAL

For general, the central government took another step in its fight to attain tariff autonomy. The action followed a note, in which Sir Francis was reminded that he was an appointee of the Chinese government, and must carry out its orders. Sir Francis and the government disagreed upon the surtaxes of 2 1/2 per cent on ordinary imports and 5 per cent on luxuries agreed upon at the Washington conference in 1922.

AMERICANS FLEE

Washington—(AP)—American refugees, fleeing from the increasing numbers from the danger zones of interior China to the seacoast cities and United States Naval forces are moving closer to the theater of war to afford them any protection that might be needed.

Admiral C. W. Williams, commander of the Asiatic fleet, has reported to the navy department that many American citizens, acting on the advice of American Minister MacMurray at Peking, have begun exodus from interior Chinese provinces because of movements of Chinese forces, while Shanghai, dispatches report a general missionary exodus from almost every province under attack and a general flight to anti-foreign agitation and hostile student mobs and soldiers.

The American destroyers Noah and Stewart are enroute from Ching Wang-tao, in Northern China, to Shanghai, for possible emergency use.

MARNES PREPARE

The month's flight of contrast, at full war strength also is preparing for what appears to be an early departure from San Diego for a far eastern destination.

At Hankow and Nanking, American consuls have warned Americans to leave. Those in Amoy, Swatow and Canton have been concentrated at points which could be evacuated at a moment's notice.

This U. S. S. Menocacy at Szechwan, has reported through Admiral Williams that 104 Americans and 165 British have left Szechwan while 40 Americans and 170 British are expected to arrive at Chung King, another evacuation center, within ten days. Withdrawal of American missionaries from Fukien province, where missions, representing American investments of millions of dollars and years of effort, have been abandoned, at least temporarily, is described by the Foochow correspondent of the Associated Press who arrived at Shanghai Monday with a group of missionaries. Only three missions in the interior section of the province remain to be evacuated, 130 women and children having departed.

An armed band which was reported at Foochow to aid in the withdrawal of 10 missionaries at Kuiton and 7 at Yenpin, all American Methodist, was commanded by Nationalist soldiers. All Catholic missionaries have left the province, although two of them were imprisoned for many days before being allowed to depart. All school buildings in Fukien missions have been taken over by the nationalists.

Several of the players returned during the next week and since that time stragglers have been returning regularly. With the return of Captain Riley, Coach Ketter, forward, and Ketter, center, the squad is again complete.

TURN THUMBS DOWN ON ZONING CHANGE

zone ordinance. He said the zoning committee did not have a definite plan worked out for Wisconsin-ave and he asked the council to rise above small things and forget petitioners. A local business district should not be placed here and there at random just keep the citizens in good humor, he said.

"I have traveled throughout the United States and many foreign countries but I have yet to find a prettier city than Appleton or one with greater possibilities.

"The zoning commission is at work on a plan establishing Wisconsin-ave in a business district as was suggested by Mr. Leach. However, we must ask the council not to grant this one petition but to look at the case from a larger standpoint," Dr. Fairfield declared.

He told of the refusal of the plan commission and the city council to commission now ceases to function, the league taking over the work of seeing that Germany complies with the disarmament provisions of the Versailles treaty.

RISE ABOVE PETTINESS

"If by some future movement this entire street is placed in a business district and the present applicant, a local business district and he said that was the thing to do now, until a definite plan had been arranged.

In referring to a petition for a local business district on S. Cherry-st Dr. Fairfield again pointed out that the zoning commission had always regarded this territory as a super-residential district.

"If a local business district must be established there, now is the time to do it. This property is still undeveloped and action should be deferred," he said. Again he pleaded with the aldermen to rise above pettiness.

"I am not interested in this matter from a dollar standpoint," Dr. Fairfield declared, "but I am interested because I want to see Appleton remain the city it is now, the finest, cleanest and prettiest city I have ever seen in all my travels."

"I am willing to cast my vote any way the members of the zoning committee voted," said F. P. Wetzel.

"The taxpayers spent thousands of dollars setting a zoning plan and then we turn around and ignore the advice of experts who are giving their time, service and knowledge free of charge to the city. It isn't right. We should abide by their decisions. They know what is best because they are in a position to know."

Mr. Steinberg stated that he, too, was willing to stand by the decisions of the city council. Mr. Steinberg presented a petition from the Riverview golf club protesting against the placing of the proposed property on S. Cherry-st in a business district.

Because of this petition it will take a three-fourths vote of the common council at the meeting next Wednesday to adopt the ordinance establishing the business district.

Dr. A. E. Rector, president of the Riverview golf club presented a proposed plat of the Riverview property and showed the potential possibilities for developing this territory into a super-residential district unequalled in any city in the state.

MRS. WRIGHT WON'T DIVORCE HUSBAND

Wife of Architect Says He Fails to Pay Her Allowance for Maintenance

San Francisco—(AP)—The Examiner says Mrs. Miriam Noel Wright, wife of Frank Lloyd Wright, nationally known architect, refuses to let her husband have a divorce.

"My husband wants a divorce," Mrs. Wright said, "but I won't give it to him, no never. Since we separated he is supposed to give me $125 a month for maintenance. But since last June he has given me only $225, and that is another thing that led to my breakdown and forced me to come to California to recuperate."

The Examiner says Mrs. Wright recently visited the office of the district attorney and asked for a warrant charging Wright with abandonment, but that the prosecutor refused on the ground that no crime had been committed in California.

WRIGHT DEFENDS HIS BOOK IN LIBEL SUIT

Regrets Aspersions on Character of Gladstone, but Believes Them True

London—(AP)—Capt. Peter Wright, just before leaving the witness stand Tuesday in trial of his libel suit against Lord Gladstone, said that he was sorry that he had written a passage casting aspersions in his book "Portraits and Criticisms," but that he still believed the passage was true and that he could not withdraw it.

He added that he would express regret for causing pain to Lord Gladstone because of the aspersions cast upon the latter's father, if Lord Gladstone would withdraw his statements that Captain Wright was a "liar, coward and fool."

Norman Birckett, counsel for Lord Gladstone, who is being sued by Captain Wright for his characterizations of the captain in defending the name of his father, opened the defense Tuesday afternoon. He declared that Captain Wright, and not Lord Gladstone, was the real libeller, "who had libelled the dead." Mr. Birckett said he would put Lord Gladstone on the stand.

Monday night marked the passing of one of Kaukauna's oldest social organizations, the Fox club.

Organized approximately 30 years ago for the purpose of creating an interest in music, the rules of the club were changed a few years ago to permit admittance of any young man in Kaukauna. According to the original laws, only persons with musical talent were eligible to membership.

The club rooms, located above the Looks Drug store in Kaukauna, were closed Monday night, and the furniture will be disposed of. Lack of interest and insufficient membership, were advanced by the directors as the reasons for dissolving.

William Deager was president of the now defunct organization.

A total of approximately $400,000 was collected Monday, the last day of tax collections. It was estimated by Fred E. Bachman, city treasurer. Of the remaining $100,000 about $80,000 will be paid before the delinquents are turned over to the county. Markets

MARKET STILL IN UPWARD MOVEMENT

Decrease in Brokers' Loans Has Bullish Effect on Sentiment

New York—(AP)—Stock prices displayed a firm undertone at the opening of Tuesday's market. The decrease of over $25,000,000 in brokers' loans last week, bringing the total down over $35,000,000 below the peak of the month, coincident with an increase in commercial loans, had a bullish effect on sentiment. General Motors and U. S. Steel Iron Pipe each showed initial gains of 1 1/2 points.

The upward movement became more pronounced as trading progressed with pools again resuming operations in a number of specialties. Motors, oils, rubbers and "merger" rallies gave the best exhibitions of group strength in the early trading, but there were several laggards in each group. The optimistic tenor of the month's bank reviews and the continued ease of money rates had a bullish effect on speculative trading. Canadian Pacific, Houston Oil, Colorado Fuel, R. H. Macy, and National Supply sold off points on the traditional "selling on the good news" following the announcement of a proposed recapitalization plan for the latter.

One of the few weak spots. Resumption of the advance in Spanish pesos, which touched another new high since 192 at 16 3/4 cents, featured the steady foreign exchange market. Demand sterling ruled around 3 1/4 and French francs just below 2 1/2 cents.

SOME FLUCTUATIONS

Absorption of several of the merger rallies caused some sensational fluctuations. Wheeling and Lake Erie Preferred getting up to 7 3/4 at midday, a new high record, and an overnight rise of 10 1/2 points, following a decline continued for the Pittsburgh and Western Maryland issues with a growing demand also averaging for the oils, merchandise, copper and chemical shares. Southern Dairies A, how-ever, declined 1/2 point, and the B stock to 12, both new minimum prices. The renewal rate for call loans was concluded at 4 per cent.

The close was firm. Total sales approximated 1,400,000 shares.

"ALFALFA IS OUR GREATEST CROP," U. W. PROF. DECLARES

COMBINES QUALITY AND LOWER COSTS, EXPERT BROADCASTS

Alfalfa Is Free from Diseases in State, and Serves to Control Weeds

Madison—(CP)—An acre of alfalfa on the average farm is not exactly a gold mine but it produces much the same result, George M. Driggs, agronomy professor, University of Wisconsin, told listeners Monday night in a talk broadcast from WHA university station.

"There are only two ways for the farmer to increase his net income," Professor Driggs added. "First, producing a quality of farm product which demands a higher price, or secondly, lowering his production costs. There will be a good margin between the cost of production and selling price, alfalfa offers the key to both problems."

"Perhaps all farmers will agree," he said, "that alfalfa has a great bearing on farming. The thinking man appreciates that buying of raw goods that enter into the manufacture of farm products is usually profitable if these products are of a nature that cannot be produced on the farm, but if they are bulky products that might have been produced at home, the freight takes the profit."

ALFALFA GREATEST CROP
"Sufficient test and experiments have been carried on to warrant us to look to this great crop alfalfa as our greatest of all crops. Here in Wisconsin it is so far free from diseases, it is the best crop to control weeds because of its deep root and a long lasting life makes it one of our best soil erosion preventatives. The farmer not using it is not necessarily losing money, but he and his community are suffering because of a thinner pocketbook."

"Experiments determining the mineral value of alfalfa prove that they are rich in many of the elements of the soil. Again, who pays the freight? The producer. The farmer with average producing herds has demonstrated to him from time and again the efficiency of a ration consisting of alfalfa hay compared with clover and timothy hay."

"In making up rations for fall pigs and brood sows, Prof. Morrison's studies show that large strong litters, pigs with three twists in their tails, come from feeding alfalfa hay. So in our feeding operation no longer should there be the question of raising alfalfa for self maintenance, we should rather challenge the farmer and business man alike as to show reason why he should not have an acre of alfalfa in Wisconsin for every dairy cow, and that would mean only about seven times the amount we now have. But half the story is not told here we herald only the feeding value of this 'Star in Agriculture.' Its longevity, its large yields each season, its high bran like quality, makes every acre a profitable acre."

CROP SAVES MONEY
"The farmer that pays freight on limestone to make his soil sweet instead of paying freight on hay and feeds, saves money for his living and building up his community. The farmer raising an abundance of alfalfa, who analyzes his soils, then reinforces his barnyard manure with needed plant foods, leaves to posterity an annual monument of high producing, profitable acres to help make agriculture a desirable vocation."

"There is no reason why the agriculturists should let the business man lead in efficiency. He must not necessarily get greater results for the same amount of time and money formerly applied. And to do this the Wisconsin farmer must fertilize his soil intelligently to raise more feed to feed more cows and bring more profits from less acres."

PROGRAM ON AIR
Fashion talks and farm news will be broadcast from the University of Wisconsin radio station each Monday night in February under the auspices of the school of agriculture as a continuation of the 'Farm folks' program.

The program will open Feb. 7 with an address on "Farmers' Farm Income" by B. H. Hibbard, agricultural economist at the university, whose recent tax survey showed heavier tax burdens carried by the farm people.

News of interest to farmers will be announced by John Swenchart, of the agriculture school, following Mr. Hibbard's address. Miss Hazel Manning, of the home economics department will give a fashion talk.

HIBBARD TO SPEAK
The program for the following Monday night follows:

BADGER UNIVERSITY COW IS GIVEN MEDAL

Madison—(CP)—A silver medal has been awarded by the University of Wisconsin to a cow named "Nana," standing her ground in a fight with a bull and a cow, and having 2721 pounds of milk.

SPEAKER

PRESIDENT GLENN FRANK
Charles Glenn Frank of the South Kaukauna cheese factory, Nick Watry of the Shady Elm factory and other farmers of this vicinity, will leave next week for Plymouth, to attend the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Cheese Producers' Association, elaborate preparations being made for a two day program Feb. 9 and 10. President Glenn Frank of Wisconsin university will be one of the speakers as will Professor Theodore Macklin, other speakers will be prominent Federation executives, officials and directors. Invitations have been issued to 10,000 Federation farmers and cheesemakers. One of the important points which will come in for discussion, it is expected, is the effort of the Federation members to secure a higher protection tariff for cheese.

BRUSEWITZ AND SON HAVE HIGH HERD AND COW DURING MONTH

Thirty-nine Cows in Cicero-Black Creek Club Produce Over 40 Pounds Fat

Thirty-nine cows in the Cicero-Black Creek Cow Testing association produced 40 pounds of butterfat, or more, during the past month, according to the report issued by Stuart Lambel, official tester. An animal owned by A. G. Brusewitz and Son topped the list for the month, producing 1,489 pounds of milk which tested 4.8 per cent butterfat, or 70.5 pounds.

"Shortie," owned by August Grundwaldt, had the second highest record in the association, producing 65.7 pounds of fat and 1,255 of milk, testing 5.2 per cent.

A. G. Brusewitz and Son also own the high herd for the month, consisting of 10 animals. These cows produced an average of 937 pounds of milk, testing 4.47 per cent, or an average of 41.9 pounds of butterfat. The herd of John Wolf, 11 cows, was second high with 739 pounds of milk, 4.21 per cent, and 31.2 pounds of butterfat. Following is a list of the cows producing 40 pounds, or more, of butterfat:

milk and 518 pounds of butterfat in one year.

The medal is awarded by the American Jersey Cattle club for meritorious production and requires that cows receiving it must produce a year's test. "Nana's" production exceeded the requirements by a substantial margin and her second calf came only two months after the record was completed.

Police Dogs, Rabbits And Foxes Part Of This Farm

BY W. F. WINSEY
Special Farm Writer
Leon and Martin, brothers, and sons of J. F. Wassersch, living diagonally across the road from the "Frankie" school, route 1, are raising silver foxes, Chinchilla rabbits and German shepherd and police dogs, besides attending to their customary farm duties.

The brothers started raising foxes two years ago with a pair obtained from the Calumet Silver Fox ranch. She won, and another pair from Herman Alva, Spencerport. They expect to go into fox breeding on a much larger scale this spring than in the past two years.

A year ago last summer, the brothers started raising rabbits with a pair of Chinchilla purchased from Peter Brown, Quality Silver Fox ranch, Sherwood. Since then, they have bought a pair of rabbits from Jerry Vosberg, a breeder, Gillingham's Corners. They have sold over a dozen for breeders and have two pairs as an experiment, and have 50 animals on hand.

EICHMAN HERD GETS AWARD CERTIFICATE OF OUTAGAMIE C. T. A.

Brothers Planning to Make Gradual Change to Brown-Swiss Grades

BY W. F. WINSEY
Special Farm Writer
Appleton—Eichman brothers, dairymen, operating on route 2, received from the Outagamie Cow Testing association official recognition of their success as producers of milk in the form of a certificate of award bearing the signature of Clement Eichman, official tester, crediting them with the production of 241.8 pounds of butterfat and 6,146 pounds of milk per cow, having an average test for the year of 3.94 per cent for nine months or over.

Two years ago, when Eichman brothers were milking 18 cows, they were the biggest producers on their milk route, according to one of the best milk producers in the best milk production for one month was 12,175 pounds from 13 cows with a test of 3.7 per cent.

Although Eichman Brothers have a herd of 18 cattle, they are milking only two cows at present. Very soon, however, that number will be increased to 14.

TO CHANGE BREED
They have a Brown Swiss herd sire, two years old, purchased from Charles Kuettel, Oshkosh, and intend to change, gradually, from Guernsey grades to Brown-Swiss grades.

These dairymen follow a non-traditional rule in feeding their cattle. They are now feeding hay, silage, and a mixed ground feed, consisting of corn, oats and barley. They have feed enough for the season and were lucky enough to get their corn in the silo before the frost. They raised 12 acres of corn, 14 acres of alfalfa and 17 acres of clover and timothy mixed. After a bad start due to worms getting into the plants, they raised 13 tons of cabbage last season. Except in the case of small grains, they intend to have about the same number of acres of each crop next season.

HENRY BUCHHOLTZ FINDS ROTATION IS EFFECTIVE

Henry Buchholtz, route 2, is dairymen on a 40-acre farm with a herd of eight grade Holsteins. In raising crops, he uses the pasture field of one year for the corn fields of the next year. He sows oats mixed with grass seed in the field used for corn the year before. The first year, he cuts the grass for hay and the next year he pastures the field. Year after year, he keeps up this rotation.

Last year Mr. Buchholtz raised one acre of cabbage, ten acres of oats, ten acres of corn, and the rest of his farm was used for hay and pasture. He intends to have the same number of acres of each crop next season. He bought five hogs last fall at an average weight of 88 pounds and raised their weight to 300 pounds each before disposing of them. A little later, he bought five more hogs averaging 125 pounds and sold them when their total weight was 1,075 pounds. When Mr. Buchholtz has surplus corn, he buys hogs and fattens them.

HE'S A WINNER

Master Farmer for 1926—that is the title earned by J. A. Tripp, living near Ponca City, Okla. Tripp scored 880 points out of a possible 1,000. Consideration was based on the appearance of the farm and its buildings, home facilities, condition of livestock and machinery, character as a neighbor and community builder and as a father who looks after the training and education of his children.

NEED METHOD FOR GRADING OF MILK

Leaders in Movement for Better Quality Urge Need Before Commissioner Nordman

Madison—(CP)—That some method of milk grading should be adopted in Wisconsin was the general opinion expressed at a hearing held at the request of leaders in the movement for better milk before Edward Nordman, commissioner of markets. Health officers from all over the state and dairymen appeared at the hearing. Mr. Nordman announced Saturday that the majority of those present were in favor of a system of grading that would be uniform throughout the state without being compulsory. The purpose of milk grading according to Mr. Nordman is to bring about a condition under which the consumer will know what he is getting and the producer will get a higher price for a superior quality product.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the following committee of seven was appointed to devise a milk grading plan: Math Mithels, department of market, chairman; H. H. Bryant, Milwaukee; Dr. Wayne A. Munn, Janesville; A. H. Kramer, Madison; P. C. Burchard, Wisconsin Dairymen's association; Milo K. Swanton, Madison Milk Producers association; C. F. Dineen, Milwaukee Milk Producers association.

UNEVEN TONE FOR BUTTER FOR WEEK

Cheese Production Increasing With Prices Slightly Higher

Madison—(CP)—The butter markets were uneven during the past week, says the weekly review of the department of markets. Trading was generally slow on the higher scores which were in liberal demand, while lower grades were fairly active as a result of light stocks. Confidence was lacking early in the week but was restored toward the end of the week. Car market supplies of all grades were light and firmly held. Butter prices are about 5 cents higher than last year at this time.

The production of cheese is gradually increasing although it is still moderate and there is very little prospect of it approaching the record production during the early part in 1926. Trading during the past week was generally quiet. Prices are about 1 1/2 cent higher than last year at this time.

Receipts were about the same as during the previous week. Prices were from 15 to 25 cent higher. At the close of the session the $12.35 mark was reached which is the highest of the current year. The market was active on all grades and classes. Prices are about the same as last year at this time.

CATTLE MARKET UNEVEN
The cattle market was uneven. The fed steer trade finished anywhere from 25 cents higher than the previous week to that much lower. Choice heavies and better grade yearlings were 15 to 25 cents higher but only a few were offered. Choice fat cows lost 25 cents while low-priced, butcher cows gained that much. Cattle prices generally are about 30 cents higher than last year at this time.

Sheep receipts were smaller than the previous week which resulted in higher prices. The increase ranging from 25 to 50 cents. Sheep prices are $1.75 lower than last year at this time.

CENTER FARMERS PLACE ORDER FOR 2,150 CHICKS

Farmers of the town of Center ordered 2,150 baby chicks last week to be sent from Iowa the latter part of March. Although the order was placed collectively to receive the benefit of discounts on large orders, the chicks will be delivered to the individuals.

Those ordering in the lot were Louis H. Stecker, Arthur Schmaling, Edward Schmaling, Frank Lautke, Walter Teicher, Alvin Priem, Edward Priem, Charles Summers, Marten Sommers, and George Felzel.

Peter Driessen Plans To Increase Poultry Flock

BY W. F. WINSEY

Special Farm Writer

Little Chute—Peter Driessen, a poultry man of this place, recently ordered a new oil-heated incubator of 4,000-egg capacity, expects it to be delivered on Feb. 15, and to have it set up and in operation 15 days later. To meet the demands of his growing flock, Mr. Driessen considers a large incubator an essential part of his equipment.

Four years ago, Mr. Driessen began raising poultry on a small scale by the purchase of 22 Rhode Island Reds at De Pere. The second year, he hatched 50 chicks in a small incubator, and the third year he dressed 72 Rhode Island Reds and raised 135 Plymouth Rock pullets, and 200 roosters, the latter of which he sold.

The fourth year, he raised 400 pullets and 300 roosters. The fifth year, he sold all his stock, bought 15 White Leghorn pullets and raised 1,200 pullets and roosters. Last September, he sold 150 and last week 150 more, beside his sales earlier in the season. He has now 300 pullets held over for breeders. Lately, he has been getting 180 eggs, daily from 450 hens.

Mr. Driessen keeps water, mash and scratch feed before his chickens throughout the day. The proportions of the elements are as follows: 100 pounds of middlings, 100 pounds bran, 100 pounds meat scraps, 100 pounds ground corn, 100 pound ground oats, 10 pounds oil meal, 2 1/2 pounds charcoal, and 1 1/2 pounds salt. The scratch feed consists of 100 pounds corn, 75 pounds wheat, 50 pounds oats, and 50 pounds barley. In the coop of the Driessen poultry farm, a supply of oyster shells is kept continuously in the feed hoppers.

One coop, 12 feet by 30 feet, was built four years ago and a new one, story coop, 22 feet by 75 feet, was built recently. The new coop contains a feed storage room, 15 feet by 22 feet. The rest of the floor space is in one room. The light is admitted from the south. The feed hoppers are in rows along the windows on the south and the nests are between the windows. The roosts are in the north. The coop is electrically lighted, but not artificially heated.

The new incubator contains four rows of nine egg trays each, with nursery trays below the egg trays.

Two 16 inch, electric fans force heat from oil heater through the incubator. The adjustments of the incubator are automatic. After the first hatch, Mr. Driessen's hatch will take a hatch from some section of the incubator each week. He intends to replenish the incubator each week with about 1,500 eggs. He plans to use eggs produced by his flock, and will get the balance from reliable chicken breeders who are using two year old birds for breeding purposes.

Mr. Driessen has orders already booked for 4,000 chicks and expects to turn out 800 perfect chicks on the average each week from March 1, to Aug. 1. From the product of his incubator he will raise 700 chicks for his private use.

DE LEIST RAISES 24 TONS OF SUGAR BEETS

Twenty-four tons of sugar beets were raised last summer by William De Leist, route 2, and landed at the Asylum station. He also raised 10 tons of clover and timothy hay, 9 acres of corn, 16 acres of oats and had 15 acres of timothy pasture. This year he will have 6 acres of alfalfa, 10 acres of corn, 10 acres of oats, 1 acre of flax, one-half acre of cucumbers, 2 acres of cabbage, 10 acres of clover and timothy and 10 acres of timothy pasture. Two years ago, Mr. De Leist tried two acres of sweet clover for hay, but he destroyed the stand by cutting the first growth too short.

Mr. De Leist is in the dairy business with a herd of 14 Holstein grades and is now milking 9 out of 11 cows, and is getting 290 pounds of milk daily testing 3.8 per cent. At the peak of the milk flow, he gets 400 pounds of milk. He is now feeding silage, ground feed and oats straw. For ground feed, he mixes 1 bag ground corn, 2 bags ground oats and 1 bag bran. He also feeds a quarter pound of ground flaxseed to each animal.

MUCKS WILL TAKE NEW OFFICE FEB. 2

Former Shot Put Champ to Succeed Reid Murray as Livestock Breeders' Secretary

Madison—(CP)—Arlio Mucks, well known among agrarians of the state because of his connection with the state agricultural school and former holder of shot put and discus throw records in the national realm of sports, will be installed as secretary of the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association during Farmers' and Homemakers' week here Jan. 31 to Feb. 4. His initiation into office will be the feature of Livestock day, Feb. 2.

He was selected, according to officers of the association, from a score of applicants whose names are familiar to the livestock industry of Wisconsin. He succeeds Reid Murray, who resigned some time ago to accept a place with a livestock sales organization. A graduate of the state school of agriculture, Mr. Mucks achieved national prominence through his work on the Badger track squad. He later went to the Olympic games at Athens. He was farming in North Dakota until he accepted his present position as Livestock agent. He will not vacate his present position until a successor is secured.
